I WAS THINKING...

Warren Wiersbe was a favourite of mine. He recently passed away. But in a interview with Jonathan Peterson prior to his death he stated, "The joy of Bible study is seeing your life changed." That was the essence of his practical Bible Commentaries the "Be..." series. Dr. Wiersbe has guided millions of people through his teaching and radio ministry into a life-transforming encounter with God's Word.

Here's what I've been thinking...has my time reading God's Word made me more sensitive to the needs of the poor? Has it cause me to be more generous to the poor? Has it caused me to pray more for their needs? Has your reading of God's Word done those things in your life? If you desire to do more in this area, FAIR can help you.
